that these individuals' rights are protected in medical emergencies, a legal service valued at approximately $47,000. All services were provided by licensed attorneys who donated their services in a pro bono capacity. We also maintain an online resource center that lists information and resources about LGBT rights in the South. These resources received over 2,000 unique views on our website during 2012. We offer direct support services and referrals to LGBT people who experience discrimination or harrassment. We offered such services to 28 indiviuals during 2013.
